

UNNATURAL DEATH

Dorothy
L. Sayers

Read for LibriVox
by Kirsten
Wever

Unnatural Death Dorothy L. Sayers

This is the third book in the Lord Peter Wimsey mystery series. As the story opens, a country doctor is telling Lord Peter Wimsey about the Unnatural Death of one of his patients. He's convinced she was murdered, but powerless to act. To begin with, she would in any case have died within a few months. Moreover, the medical evidence clearly indicated the cause of death as heart failure, which was only to be expected.

Intrigued, Lord Peter looks into the matter, supported – as usual – by his friend, Chief Inspector Parker of Scotland Yard, and his valet, Bunter (both recurring characters in the Lord Peter Wimsey mystery series). New to the author's cast of detective characters is Miss Alexandra Katharine Climpson, a prim, middle aged spinster who lends both charm and variety to the narrative.

Read by Kirsten Wever. 23 Tracks. Total running time: 10:25:57

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org.

Cover image from "The Bed in the Mirror" (ca. 1919) by Henri Matisse (1869-1954). Copyright expired in U.S., Canada, EU. and all countries with author's life +70 yrs laws. Cover design by TriciaG. This design is in the public domain.